Please support teens and young adults in your area to attend events by helping them register, figure out payment and/or scholarships, and arrange transportation.

- June 14-19, 2013 for all young adult Quakers (ages 18-35) in North America: Continuing Rev_I_tion: Be Brought Low, and Back to the Root -- A Young Adult Friends Conference on Simplicity, at Pendle Hill in Wallingford, PA. "[The] conference [is] designed to strengthen a networked generation of awakened and effective spiritually grounded change agents. The program will include inspirational speakers, workshops and trainings, worship and worship-sharing, fellowship, discernment of gifts and ministry, service and direct action. We are calling all young adult Friends who feel a movement in our generation to create the world we believe is possible. At its core, this conference is about providing the foundational skills and training to inspire revelation --or revolution-- as we strive to live into Spirit-led relationship with ourselves, our communities and the earth." www.pendlehill.org/yald.
