

“Spring Youth Service Learning Camp”

March 31st to April 4th – 2015

This camp will be focused on learning about Native American History and Culture, more specifically about the Wukchumni Yokuts from Central California’s San Joaquin Valley.

The Gathering Of Native American (GONA) curriculum will be facilitated by the Wukchumni people and other California Natives, incorporating Historical events and Contemporary Native Americans Lifestyles

This will be an opportunity for Quakers and Wukchumni to share and learn from each other, about who we are, where we come from, historical events not usually taught in school, interactions with Tribal Elders, learning local Wukchumni Traditions, a field trip to a National Forest, many other fun activities, and the opportunity to participate in a sweat lodge ceremony.

When: March 31st to April 4th – 2015

Who: High School Age Quaker & Native youth

Where: Quaker Oaks Farm – Visalia Friends Meeting House
