QuakerPress of FGC produces books, pamphlets, First Day School resources, and ebooks that nurture individual Friends and Quaker meetings.

Visit FGCquaker.org/quakerpressfgc to see QuakerPress' best known titles.

Each summer, the annual FGC Gathering offers a week of worship, workshops, and events for all ages. This year's theme is Ripples Start Where Spirit Moves.

Visit FGCquaker.org/fgcgathering to view updates for the FGC Gathering during the year.

QuakerFinder is a searchable online directory of Quaker meetings and worship groups across the United States and Canada. This resource helps Friends and seekers locate a Quaker meeting near them.

Visit QuakerFinder.org to find your nearest Quaker meeting or add your listing.

The annual spring Young Clerks Training helps clerks of the Gathering High School and Young Adult Friends Programs gain hands-on experience and deep insight into leadership and the Business Meeting process.

Visit FGCquaker.org/yct to learn more about the training.

The Yearly Meeting Visitors program sends volunteers from FGC to the annual sessions of our affiliated Yearly Meetings. Visitors seek to engage and inform members of the Yearly Meeting about what is happening at FGC and bring what they have seen and heard about the Yearly Meeting back to FGC.

Visit FGCquaker.org/ymvisitors to learn about this important ongoing partnership.
Friends General Conference, with Divine guidance, nurtures the spiritual vitality of the Religious Society of Friends by providing programs and services for individual Friends, meetings, and people interested in the Quaker path.

Discover FGC’s year-round services for Friends and their meetings!

The Ministry on Racism program empowers individual Friends and Quaker meetings to challenge racism in their communities by learning about the roots of white supremacy; building racial diversity and awareness through year-round learning opportunities; and worshiping together around the issues arising from the impact of racism.

Visit FGCquaker.org/challengeracism to learn how you can help your meeting challenge racism.

The Spiritual Deepening program is designed to invite small groups of people, both Quakers and Newcomers, to build community in-person and online; explore how Quaker spiritual practice can transform lives; and go deeper into the life of Spirit together.

Visit FGCquaker.org/spiritualdeepening to deepen your spiritual journey.

The Quaker Cloud is a web toolkit supporting Quaker community, processes, and outreach that has helped over 160 Quaker meetings, yearly meetings, and organizations develop their web presence by providing: an easy to build and maintain website; a Minute Manager to archive, search, and share meeting minutes; and a secure, private meeting directory for attenders and members.

Visit QuakerCloud.org to explore the Quaker Cloud and try it FREE until September 30th, 2017.

QuakerBooks & More is a ministry of Friends General Conference that serves Quakers, Quaker meetings, and interested individuals who are spiritually curious through print and electronic books representing the vitality and diversity of the Quaker experience; sustainably-sourced products that promote a more simple, natural lifestyle; and book consignments for quarterly meetings, peace fairs, retreats, conferences, and other events.

Visit QuakerBooks.org to browse QuakerBooks & More’s online store and view its hours of operation.

The Friends Meeting House Fund (FMHF) nurtures accessibility and environmental sustainability through loans and grants for Quaker meetings. Meetings can apply for a loan to buy or build a new meeting house, request a green grant for improvements to reduce environmental impact, or apply for a General Improvement Grant to cover the cost of repairs and accessibility improvements.

For more information, email Lee Meinicke, FGC’s Fiscal and Property Manager, at leem@fgcquaker.org.

Faith and Play™ is a Montessori-inspired approach to religious education that helps children find words and images for expressing their experiences of holy mystery and wonder in their lives. Trainings for Faith and Play™ teachers are available through FGC.

Visit FGCquaker.org/faith-and-play to learn more about Faith and Play™.

As the home of FGC’s interfaith and ecumenical work, the Christian and Interfaith Relations Committee (CIRC) builds greater understanding across Christian and other faith traditions and represents FGC at interdenominational and interfaith events.

Visit FGCquaker.org/circ to learn more about CIRC and its work.