1 Youth Programs Coordination Position 2 Description

4 Youth Programs Coordinator and Youth Programs Coordinating Committee

5 One of the most important concerns of this vital cell ought to be for the spiritual nurture of the 6 children and youth of the meeting. ... When do our Quaker families begin to train their children
7 in the significance of silent worship and communion? We are in a world beset with noises... If 8 ever the spirit needed to be calmed and deepened with the reality of God, it is now. ... But the 9 slow formation of spiritual ideals and counter attractions which build the soul and shape the 10 character come only through patient and painstaking nurture. -- "The Vital Cell," Rufus M

13 For many years PYM has been concerned with involving young Friends in the life of the 14 Meeting: helping them to stay connected between sessions, and helping Meetings that have 15 children, teenagers, and young adults meet these Friends' needs.

17 The Youth Programs Coordinating Committee hires and provides ongoing supervision of the 18 Youth Programs Coordinator, an employee of Pacific Yearly Meeting, and participates actively 19 in envisioning and supporting programs and activities. This committee also stewards the use of 20 interest income from the Bob Vogel Endowment.

21
22 The Youth Programs Coordinator builds the capacity of youth and adults to run their own 23 programs and serves as a resource for Meetings (local/Monthly, worship groups, Quarterly, 24 Yearly) and Quaker organizations within PYM. In working with individuals, groups, and 25 committees of all ages, from time to time the Coordinator and the YPC Committee act as a 26 catalyst for new programs and activities. The YPC does not typically take charge of running 27 programs and activities themselves.
