

A Workshop for Quaker Adults: "Becoming Adult Allies to Youth"

pacificyearlymeeting.org/youth/adults/

How can adults support and build relationships with youth in a Friendly way? How can adults support each other to be allies to young people? How can we attract and keep young people involved in our Meetings? What does it take to be a "FRAP" (Friendly Responsible Adult Presence) at a Quaker teen gathering?

Two dates/locations to choose from: 1 in SCQM, 1 in CPQM

Sponsored by the Pacific Yearly Meeting (PYM) Youth Programs Coordinator & Committee, Junior Yearly Meeting (JYM) Adult Committee, SCQM Ministry & Counsel, and the SCQM & CPQM Teen Program Committees

Free of charge. Bring a sack lunch and potluck snack item. Please arrive by 9:30am to sign in and get settled.

Come have fun bringing out your inner child in a Quaker way. Learn how to volunteer to be a FRAP at a Quaker teen event and other ways to support PYM youth. Bring it home to relationships with the children and grandchildren in your life!

Who should come?

All who are interested, curious, scared, or excited: You! Invite a Friend!

This workshop will include resources on outreach and being an ally to youth; specific discussion about serving as a "FRAP"; worship-sharing about experiences, hopes, fears, and wonderings; games (because everyone needs to PLAY!); and activities to explore scenarios and develop skills.

Please register a.s.a.p. by 5 days ahead:
by 4/13 for Orange Grove or 4/27 for Friends House

by contacting Alyssa Nelson, PYM Youth Programs Coordinator:
pym.youthcoordinator@gmail.com / (530) 563-6369.

This workshop usually occurs only once a year each in Southern and Northern California.
Additional and future workshops may be scheduled at Meetings upon request.
All Friends are welcome, including teens and young adults.
