

A QUAKER CENTER CALL FOR PROGRAM PROPOSALS

Deadline Extended to March 15, 2020

The Ben Lomond Quaker Center is accepting program proposals for 2021.

Quaker Center seeks to nurture the spiritual growth and faithfulness of Friends and others, while strengthening Quakerism and its witness in the world. We offer programs and personal retreats exemplifying Friends' testimonies of community, integrity, simplicity, peace, and equality. We strive to live in right order with all creation, especially with the redwood forest that sustains us here in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Hence, we are seeking Friends who are led to share their insights into

- spiritual practice, growth, and faithfulness.
- Strengthening and enriching Quakerism and its witness in the world.
- Exemplifying Friends' testimonies.
- Climate change & living in right order with creation
- Social & Racial Justice & Healing

Programs utilizing a mix of modes (such as: journaling, discussion, worship, the arts, group lectures, small groups, queries, interaction with nature, etc.) are encouraged.

Those program proposals which offer insights into developing and nurturing an effective and radical Quaker witness in the face of contemporary challenges will be given special attention.

PLEASE SUBMIT A 25- 35 -WORD DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM, INCLUDING:

Name(s) and Contact Information (including email) of leader(s) and an elder (if you wish):
