The 21st annual gathering of Pacific Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends opened in a Meeting for Worship at 2:00 p.m. on August 13, 1967, at the Claremont Men's College, Claremont, California. As we sat in worship together in the quiet stillness of a warm summer afternoon, the ministry emerging from the silence wove the tapestry which has brought us together. In our weakness and limitation we must remind ourselves that we are not God, but instruments of God's will. As we hear the call to feed the Lord's sheep and lambs, we must learn and study to be sensitive to the leadings which will show us not only the goal, but the part we can play in achieving it. While we have to tread through the windings between "Love thine enemy" and the horror which comes from enmity, the silent opening of a flower can give us the joy of living and the courage to go on.

The meeting closed for an hour of fellowship.

YEARLY MEETING SESSION II: Sunday, August 13, 4:00 p.m.

After sitting in the silence our Clerk, Madge Seaver, asked our Reading Clerk, David Bruner, to read Epistles from other Yearly Meetings.

He first read from an Epistle from the Southern Appalachian Association of Friends written at their ninth annual conference. The conference theme was the strengthening of our spiritual life: as individuals, as Monthly Meetings and as an association or Yearly Meeting.

David then read from the Epistle from Canadian Yearly Meeting. Their letter expressed hope and expectancy in our time of strife and upheaval, through the knowledge that Friends from all over the world have been reading "No Time But This Present" together, in preparation for the Friends World Conference. This knowledge led to an awareness of the need for unity.

The Clerk introduced Harold McClelland, Dean of the Faculty of the College. He welcomed us to the campus and expressed his hope that we would have both a good time as well as a profitable conference.

We were happy in welcoming visitors to the Yearly Meeting from overseas: Margaret Gibbins from London Yearly Meeting, whom many of us know through her work with the Friends World Conference; also Sok Hon Ham and Lee Bok Kim, who are attenders of Seoul Monthly Meeting in Korea. Visitors from other Yearly Meetings were Victor and Verna Kaufman and their children, from Washington D.C. Monthly Meeting; Esther and Paul Goulding from Gwynedd Monthly Meeting and Philadelphia Yearly Meeting; and our very dear Friends, Howard and Anna Brinton who come from Philadelphia Yearly Meeting although we claim them for our own.

We then welcomed each other, members of Meetings standing as the Recording Clerk read the roll of Meetings. There did not appear to be Friends from Riverside or Victoria Monthly Meetings at this time.
Epistle Committee: Catherine Bruner for the Ministry and Oversight Committee announced the names of the Epistle Committee:

Marguerite Wells, chairman         Judy Bruff         Tippy Schwabe

Worship-Fellowship: Phil Wells outlined the procedures and purposes of the Worship-Fellowship groups. He pointed out that there are only fifteen minutes between the end of the Worship-Fellowship groups and the General Sessions. One of the aims of the groups is to give the General Sessions a deeper spirit of worship which can best be preserved by our coming from one meeting to the next without encouraging distractions and new conversations on the way.

It was announced that Norris and Evangeline Kimber from California Yearly Meeting were with us, whom we also welcome with our other visitors.

After a short period of silent meditation, the meeting was closed, to reconvene at 7:30 p.m.

Following the close of the General Session, we participated in some hymn singing led by Walt Raitt, with Harlow Mills' piano accompaniment.

YEARLY MEETING SESSION III: Sunday, August 13, 7:30 p.m.

David Bruner read from the Epistle of East Africa Yearly Meeting. Their idea that coming to Yearly Meeting was a time to rest -- rest in the sense of giving Christ time to reveal what he wants us to be -- seemed to speak to us.

He then read from the London Yearly Meeting Epistle which carried through into the idea that through worship we can learn to harness the Power within us.

Minutes from the first and second General Sessions were read. Corrections were made to the list of Monthly Meetings answering the rolls. Los Angeles Meeting asked us to list Lee Bok Kim, our visitor from Korea, as a loved attender of Los Angeles Meeting.

Ministry and Oversight: Catherine Bruner introduced the concern we all feel for the state of the Society. Her quiet beginning set the tone for a very thoughtful meditation, linking the condition of our Quaker Society to the condition of the world society. We examined our readiness to meet the opportunities and challenges in a rapidly changing world, where old values and morality are being revised, renewed, or discarded. We questioned the adequacy of our self-education process. Does it enable us to express what we believe and enter into the new dimensions this new world offers us? We must be alert that the warm coziness which we find enveloping us at Yearly Meeting and in our Monthly Meetings does not snare us into imagining that this is all of Quakerism. A vital religion is one which goes from an encounter with the love of God to an encounter in service to that love, no matter how hopeless the situation may be. The quick growth of our Yearly Meeting symbolizes vitality among its members, but is this vitality a corporate thing or an individual thing? Are we truly joined together, through and in the love of God?

We were reminded that there is a great stirring outside the Society of Friends. Are we ready to allow a stirring of the spirit within it? The time is ready for a reinterpretation of Jesus' good news which can set the world afire. Are we among those who live that good news, through the loving deed, ready to put aside the notion of "best advantage" and live and teach the gospel of harmony and simplicity?

The spirit moved among us in this time of meditation, and our meeting closed with a sense of uplifting and wonder.

YEARLY MEETING SESSION IV: Monday, August 14, 10:15 a.m.

After a time of silent gathering in the spirit, the Reading Clerk read first from the Epistle from the France Yearly Meeting, who wrote of their deep gratitude to American Quakers in our struggle against the war in Vietnam, a struggle in which they wished to join. The Epistle from New York Yearly Meeting, from which he then read, described the problem we all encounter in communication -- how to listen with understanding; how to speak with pertinence.

The Clerk introduced Anna Brinton, who shared with us her reflections on the American Friends Service Committee. She made us smile with overflowing tenderness as she put the weighty concerns and projects of the Service Committee in terms of simple humanness; for example, the moving of files from "Chaos Incorporated" to another location; the fixing of a machine in China with bailing wire and a piece of bamboo.

As she went over the fifty years of the A.F.S.C., she put in no uncertain terms its internal dangers, quoting from Albert Einstein. He said of Quakers that they gave dignity as well as food, and that every institution, except the Society of Friends, by its very nature kills the spirit which called it forth. For this reason, the A.F.S.C. must keep open, not fixed in its ways. In learning a language, those going into overseas service were told that the tone and phrase of expressing courteous concern are more important than the correct form for asking for bread and water.

The American Friends Service Committee is often reminded of the challenge given by a recipient of its help, "why don't you preach what you practice?"

We were reminded that the A.F.S.C. always works with governments and governmental agencies, knowing that peace as well as war are waged by government.
Anna Brinton concluded her reflections by saying that the new executive secretary to the American Friends Service Committee, William Letsperch, who succeeds Collin Bell, will see a new transition as the A.F.S.C. enters its second fifty years.

Representative Committee: The Assistant Clerk, Harlow Mills, read minutes of the first session of the Representative Committee, which had been transcribed and approved by the Representative Committee.

1967-1 The Yearly Meeting approved the Representative Committee minutes of the first session, which are to be included as part of the minutes of the fourth General Session. (See Attachment #1)

The Assistant Clerk then read the minutes of the second session of the Representative Committee, which had been written up by the Recording Clerk but not read back to the Committee.

1967-2 The Yearly Meeting approved these minutes, to be included in the minutes of the fourth General Session except: (see Attachment #2)

(1) The minute on the Friend in the Orient Committee, which is to be further discussed and then clarified at the next session of Representative Committee on Wednesday.

(2) The minutes on the Permanent Site and Participation in a Voyage of the Phoenix which, due to lack of time, were not considered.

(3) It was agreed that the minute on Social Order with respect to organization of the Committee should be acted upon on a trial basis, with amendments to the Discipline to be deferred until experience with the new arrangement warranted a permanent change.

After a period of silent reflection, the session adjourned until 7:30 p.m.

YEARLY MEETING SESSION V: Monday, August 14, 7:30 p.m.

The session opened with Friends gathering in silent worship.

The Reading Clerk read from the Epistle from Japan Yearly Meeting. They wrote of the necessity to discern that which is within their power and that which is of primary importance; of their preoccupation with peace and their work with Friends World Committee for Consultation.

Minutes of the fourth General Session were approved, subject to the report covering Anna Brinton's message being reconsidered with Anna Brinton.
The first speaker to address the session, Margaret Gibbins from Edinburgh Monthly Meeting, spoke of the ecumenicity of the Friends World Committee. She was with us when we met in 1953, as a small informal gathering. Now that we are a much larger Yearly Meeting, she cautioned us to keep the spirit of informality and spontaneity of that earlier time.

She started her discussion of the Friends World Committee by quoting from the Catechism of the Church of Scotland: "The chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy him for ever." She commented that he who loves God brings the world together. To bring the world of Friends together is the driving force of the Friends World Committee for Consultation.

Germany Yearly Meeting in 1929 suggested the idea for the Friends World Committee which was put into effect in 1937, when Friends saw very clearly their need for each other across international boundaries, and created a means of putting their common strength together. Although obstructed by international war, the work of the Committee continued, striving to bring Friends in unity, carrying out programs which would promote loving concern and reconciliation. Because there are differences, we need to widen our horizons and become more aware of the world of our neighbor. There is a unique and endless opportunity for encounter in an international meeting.

At the recent Friends World Conference the door has been opened; encounter has taken place. Now the door must be kept open. The world is crying for lack of Quakerism in action: Action which stems from the roots of Quakerism, through an involvement with one another which faces us all in the same direction. Worship in the depths together and go out to serve the world of God's children.

After a few moments of profound quiet which concluded Margaret Gibbins' address, Sok Hon Ham rose to bring us a message from Korea. He unfolded his prophetic message by insisting that Korea, although she has many faults, is a peaceful, peace-loving nation. During the 4,000 years of her history, she has never invaded another country; in her mythology there are no war heroes -- no war stories. On the other hand, she lacked a penetrating moral power from a failure, he thought, in developing her own religion. The blending of Confucianism, Buddhism, and Taoism in Korea cannot go deep into her soul and so she must suffer.

Korea is a crucified historical messiah, carrying the sins of human kind; suffering in a division imposed by the nationalism of outside powers, the United States and Russia, which separates families and people of one blood, one morality, and one custom. Sok Hon Ham himself comes from the northern part of Korea, and he now lives in the south and is separated from members of his own family.
Although Korea is a suffering nation, she is suffering with a purpose. Through her suffering she is making a contribution to world history. Since the Second World War, institutionalized religions, corrupted by nationalism, are condemned in her. But he likened war to a flood which, after it has passed, leaves the soil ready for a new generation. Korea is travailing with a new child; a new religion for a new world. Quakerism was unknown in Korea until after the Korean War, but Sok Hon Ham feels that this is the new Seed. He wondered whether his small meeting could fulfill its mission. He had great faith in the future, looking towards the next civilization, which must be a worldwide civilization.

We received this living epistle with a spirit of thankfulness in our closing worship.

YEARLY MEETING SESSION VI: Tuesday, August 15, 10:15 a.m.

Out of our opening period of worship came ministry reminding us that we are sitting on a watch tower ready to listen, act, plan, and write what the Lord will say to us.

The Reading Clerk read from the Epistle sent from the 287th Annual Session of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. In the very first line of this Epistle came the message, without warning or prologue: "Our sessions were plunged into intense and spiritually turbulent discussions on Vietnam." The minutes they recorded in their Epistle express their Yearly Meeting's commitment to give aid and compassionate support to mitigate the horror of this violent conflict in Vietnam, realizing that we have often broken with secular governments rather than defraud our conscience.

The minutes of the fifth General Session were read and approved.

The Clerk welcomed Barrett Hollister from Yellow Springs, Ohio, Monthly Meeting, Indiana Yearly Meeting.

Young Friends Minute of Concern: William Bruff, Jr. delivered a Minute of Concern addressed to us by the Young Friends of Pacific Yearly Meeting which included a recommendation that the Yearly Meeting should open a bank account to send money to the Canadian Friends Service Committee for medical aid to all parts of Vietnam. The Minute of Concern of Young Friends follows:
YOUNG FRIENDS MINUTE OF CONCERN

Believing that there is "that of God" in every man, Friends have for 300 years denied "all outward wars and strife, and fightings with outward weapons, for any end, or under any pretense whatsoever...." Friends have also been led to minister to the victims of war, disregarding all distinctions between "friend" and "foe" as contradictory to the basic humanity of all men.

We, the Young Friends of Pacific Yearly Meeting, feel committed to a stand of total opposition to the war our country is waging in Vietnam. The war is a close and immediate thing in our lives, for it is from people in our age group that the physical material upon which the war depends is drawn. It is with a feeling of impatience that we have sought ways to end the war. We feel now that the situation is so critical that strong, positive action must be taken.

We are a small group, unable alone to make immediate changes in the political conditions that allow the war to continue in our name. We are able to challenge a law that would prohibit us from helping our brothers, those who suffer from the destruction we pour down upon them. The restrictions that have been placed on medical aid sent to war victims in "enemy" controlled areas of Vietnam are absolutely intolerable to men of conscience. They must not be silently accepted.

We, as Friends, are compelled to publicly undertake specific actions to witness to the injustice of laws which would prohibit the giving of humanitarian relief to particular human beings.

We therefore recommend that Pacific Yearly Meeting establish a bank account, the purpose of which shall be to transmit funds through the Canadian Friends Service Committee for medical aid to all parts of Vietnam. We have collected a sum of money which we wish to present as the initial contribution to be sent through this account. We further recommend that the Pacific Yearly Meeting inform each member family of this action.

We urge the establishment of this account to express our concern that our help should go to victims of the war, regardless of the political units within which they may find themselves, for love can recognize no barriers that man may place in the way of humanity.

Helen Dart
Clerk
The meeting expressed warm gratitude to the Young Friends for their leadership in bringing this before us. It was agreed that their recommendation would be considered in conjunction with a similar recommendation which, we were told, would be coming from the Peace Committee at a later session.

Friends Committee on National Legislation and Peace Committee: The chairman of the Peace Committee introduced reports from members of the committee and of the peace program, together with Frances McAllister, reporting as our representative to Friends Committee on National Legislation. The reports and the ensuing discussion were centered around civil disobedience and our position with respect to secular law. We were told that the voyage of the Phoenix, carrying aid to the victims of Vietnam, was not thought of in terms of a lawful or unlawful act, but was carried out in answer to a clear leading that it had to be done.

The work of the FCNL was described; the opportunity to influence the making of law; the center from which Friends can know their real position with respect to law, where we can find out how to act for conscience sake, without calling upon ourselves unnecessary reprisals.

In describing the concern that the paying of taxes to support war is in violation of conscience, came the idea of orderly disobedience. This came up again in the comments on draft resistance and the movement gathering together persons not eligible for the draft who are identifying fully with those who resist or refuse the call to military service. An orderly and self-recorded disobedience was recommended. Such breaking of the law accepts without resentment the consequences which law prescribes for those who disobey. We were reminded that the irrational act of war disintegrates society, even ourselves, and that it sometimes takes an irrational act to counteract the dynamic of violence. As we enter into the area of trying to re-establish sensitivity in a society that is becoming dehumanized, we must provide a vehicle through which those we have touched can act.

It was then suggested that we move forward and unite with Young Friends and approve their recommendation. We were asked to consider, however, that this be done in accordance with law, that showing disregard for law would frustrate our purpose of changing law to achieve peace. An urgent need to resolve this difference of opinion right then and there was expressed; but due to the lateness of the hour, the Clerk urged the meeting to close, recommending that further discussion be held with the Peace Committee at the ninth General Session.

In the ministry of that closing came to us the words, "Not by our hand but by the hand of God."
YEARLY MEETING SESSION VII: Tuesday, August 15, 1967, 7:30 p.m.

The seventh General Session opened with a period of worship.

Our Reading Clerk read from an Epistle to Friends Everywhere from Monteverde Monthly Meeting, San Jose, Costa Rica, describing their sense of challenge to search inwardly, seeking their place of service, striving to follow Christ's way; to become involved, to go out daily among our fellow men.

Gladys and Robert Gray from California Yearly Meeting were welcomed.

Report of Representatives to Friends World Conference: Our representatives and other Friends from the Yearly Meeting, together with two members of California Yearly Meeting who attended the Friends World Conference, gave us their impressions of this 900 strong gathering of Friends from all over the world in Greensboro, North Carolina in August 1967. This was not a reporting of the proceedings of the conference, but a sharing of impressions. Despite the formality of our gathering, the sharing which took place gave us a true sense of the warm and radiant fellowship achieved at the conference. One of our former Reading Clerks who, when reading epistles to us, always put such meaning in the salutation, "To Friends Everywhere," said that he now had a far clearer idea of what this meant. From different points of view we were made aware of the underlying unity which welded them together, going below the differences between the programmed and unprogrammed Meetings. Although the Young Friends there were described as more possessive of and displayed more urgency for concerns, they were not a group apart, but were an integral part of the corporate cohesion of the conference; in discussion meetings and meetings for worship and in every way. Differences of race, occupation, and country made for a Quaker unity which sameness would probably never have achieved.

Out of this experience came the urgent prompting to bring home the spirit which had caught hold of them, to make us aware of the richness of the Quaker life which is going on beyond our own Monthly and Yearly Meetings, to become aware of the other members of our worldwide Family, and to have confidence that communication is possible.

It was recommended that we invite our representatives to our Monthly and regional Meetings so that an even wider number of Pacific Yearly Meeting Friends could be touched both by the spirit of unity and the spirit of concern which had caught hold of these Friends through their confrontation with diversity, out of which they found themselves able to go on together in a single direction.

A message to Friends Everywhere from the Fourth World Conference of Friends concluded this time of meaningful sharing which carried us into the silence of our closing at 9:30 p.m.
YEARNLY MEETING SESSION VIII: August 16, 10:15 a.m.

The eighth General Session opened with a period of worship.

The Reading Clerk read from Australia Yearly Meeting's Epistle, which made known to us their increasing awareness of the opportunities open to them in the part they may play in the dialogue between Christianity and other religions.

The Epistle of North Carolina Yearly Meeting (Conservative), which he read next, declared the faith that God is the God of persons, in the jungle, the city, the farm, and the desert, not of organizations, rituals, or clever schemes.

The Clerk announced that the Nominating Committee Report had been posted and that an open meeting of the committee between 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. in the afternoon had been called.

There next followed a time of remembrance during which Memorials, Testimonials of God's grace in the lives of those who had died since our last Yearly Meeting, were read:

From Claremont Meeting: Emma L. Pearce
Robert F. Repenning
Margaret Dorland Webb

From Davis Meeting: Fredrick Brooks

From Grass Valley Meeting: Reginald Paget

From La Jolla Meeting: Lucretia Eldridge
Leoti Kennedy

From Los Angeles Meeting: Florence Willis

From Mexico City Meeting: Mildred Harrigan

From Orange Grove Meeting: Mara Moser

From Phoenix Meeting: Richard Hucklebridge

From Reno Meeting: Dorothea Worley

From Santa Barbara Meeting: Ann Piton

From Santa Fe Meeting: Olive Rush

From Santa Monica Meeting: Carl May
And then from Palo Alto Meeting: Vern James, the first Clerk of Pacific Yearly Meeting.

"While we are cast down at the loss of our oldest and truest Friend, we express our thanks for the many years of association, for the multitudinous services he shared with us, and for the privilege of having known intimately one who walked so confidently and consistently in the steps of the Master."

In the fellowship of quiet remembering which followed the reading, we realized how closely bound we still are to those and other Friends who have lit candles in our hearts which we carry after they have gone.

The Chairman of our History Committee, Archivist for the Yearly Meeting, Walt Raitt, outlined briefly the development of the first twenty years of Pacific Yearly Meeting, taking us back to the time of the Pacific Coast Association of Friends, out of which the Yearly Meeting was born. He described it as a virgin birth of the Holy Spirit, dedicated, as God's parents, by Howard and Anna Brinton, in whose home in 1932 the Pacific Coast Association held their first Meeting. He named the first twelve Meetings who minuted ratification of the Yearly Meeting:

- Vancouver
- University
- Berkeley
- San Francisco
- Palo Alto
- College Park

- Tracy
- Orange Grove
- Fellowship House, Los Angeles
- Riverside
- Mexico City
- Honolulu

He described the early years when the first budget was $174.88, with no assessments, no taxes, and fear of domination. Then came gradual evolution, the publication of the handbook and the recognition of new Monthly Meetings; the writing of the Discipline; the development of worship-fellowship groups; the preparation of the queries; and the organization of our committee structure; up to the present, to 1964, for example, when 642 people attended Yearly Meeting, only half of whom were adults.

Social Order: The report of the Social Order Committee included the reading in full of the statement issued by the Sixth National Conference of Friends in Race Relations. The Committee recommended that Pacific Yearly Meeting adopt the statement. Friends felt that the statement would be useful as a basis of study. There was some question concerning adopting it, as such. Final action was put over until the evening session.

Gretchen Rudnick, Pacific Yearly Meeting's representative to the Conference on Race Relations, reported on this year's conference held in North Carolina, July 6-9, 1967. It was felt that America is moving toward apartheid. Even among Friends it is becoming difficult for Negroes and whites to talk honestly with each other. The world's most serious division may well be between those who have known humiliation and degradation and those who have not. Minority groups may provide more hope for leadership toward brotherhood than the white majority.

It was reported that consideration was being given to holding the 1969 conference on the West Coast. Gretchen Rudnick expressed the hope that, if such a conference is held in our region, more attention be given to the problems of our Indian and Mexican-American minorities.

1967-3 The following minute was approved: Social Order Committee was asked to consider the possibility and feasibility of assisting in arrangements to have the Race Relations Conference held on the West Coast in 1969, and to make their recommendation to the Executive Committee in March 1968.

Epistle: The Epistle from Pacific Yearly Meeting to Friends Everywhere was read for the first time. An open meeting to discuss it was announced for 1:00 p.m. August 16.

The meeting closed with a time of worship.

YEARY MEETING SESSION IX: August 16, 9:00 p.m.

The meeting opened with a period of silent worship.

The Reading Clerk read from a message from the Friends United Meeting reminding us of the danger of living on a heritage won by our Quaker forebears; we are to move in the Power of Christ which transcends all inherited structures.

Minutes of the eighth General Session were approved subject to Gretchen Rudnick's being authorized to confer with the Recording Clerk and amend the record of her report as it appeared in the minutes.

Treasurer: The Treasurer submitted his report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1967, copies of which were circulated.

1967-4 The Treasurer's report was accepted for inclusion in these minutes. (See Attachment #5)

Finance Committee: The Chairman of the Finance Committee presented the committee's proposal for the Budget for the Yearly Meeting for the period July 1, 1967 through June 30, 1968. The proposal which was circulated showed comparisons between the amounts budgeted and the actual transactions of the previous fiscal year.
The Chairman made a detailed explanation of the budget with the help of graphs.

1967-5 The Budget Committee's recommendation was approved with appreciation. The budget as presented is to be included in these minutes. (See Attachment #6)

Representative Committee: The Assistant Clerk read the minutes of the Representative Committee's third meeting held on August 16.

1967-6 The Representative Committee minutes of the third meeting were approved and became part of these minutes. (See Attachment #3)

1967-7 Minutes of exercise from the Representative Committee were also read and accepted to become part of these minutes for information to the Yearly Meeting. (See Attachment #3)

Pacific Yearly Meeting Holding Corporation: The Yearly Meeting was asked to consider an amendment to the By-Laws of the Pacific Yearly Meeting Holding Corporation.

1967-8 The Yearly Meeting approved the amendment of Article V of the By-Laws of Pacific Yearly Meeting Holding Corporation which now reads:

"The Officers of the Trustees shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and such additional vice-presidents, assisting secretary-treasurers, and treasurers as the Trustees shall deem appropriate."

Peace Committee: The Chairman of the Peace Committee presented a Minute of Concern submitted jointly by the Young Friends Yearly Meeting and the Peace Committee. The minute was substantially the same as the Young Friends Minute placed before an earlier session. (See page 7)
The minute follows:

PACIFIC YEARLY MEETING PEACE COMMITTEE
AND YOUNG FRIENDS

A Minute of Concern:
Medical Aid for Vietnam

Believing that there is "that of God" in every man, Friends have for 300 years denied "all outward wars and strife, and fightings with outward weapons, for any end, or under any pretense whatsoever, ..." Friends have also been led to minister to the victims of war, disregarding all distinctions between "friend" and "foe" as contradictory to the basic humanity of all men.

We of Pacific Yearly Meeting feel committed to a stand of total opposition to the war our country is waging in Vietnam. The war is a close and immediate thing in our lives, for it is from among us that the physical material upon which the war depends is drawn. It is with a feeling of impatience that we have sought ways to end the war. We feel now that the situation is so critical that strong, positive action must be taken.

We are a small group, unable alone to make immediate changes in the political conditions that allow the war to continue in our name. We are able to challenge a law that would prohibit us from helping our brothers, those who suffer from the destruction we pour down upon them. The restrictions that have been placed on medical aid sent to war victims in "enemy" controlled areas of Vietnam are absolutely intolerable to men of conscience. They must not be silently accepted.

We, as Friends, are compelled publicly to undertake specific actions to witness to the injustice of laws which would prohibit the giving of humanitarian relief to particular human beings.

We therefore recommend that Pacific Yearly Meeting establish a special or earmarked account, under the Yearly Meeting, the purpose of which shall be to transmit funds through the Canadian Friends Service Committee for medical aid to all parts of Vietnam. We take grateful note of the initial contribution of $158.00 from the Young Friends and encourage attenders at Pacific Yearly Meeting to add their contributions. We further recommend that Pacific Yearly Meeting inform each member family of this action, encouraging them to make checks payable to Pacific Yearly Meeting earmarked for Vietnam, and that funds so collected be regularly transmitted under the auspices of Pacific Yearly Meeting Peace Committee to the Canadian Friends Service Committee with due notification to the press and appropriate U.S. Government officials.

We urge the establishment of this account to express our concern that our help should go to victims of the war, regardless of the political units within which they may find themselves, for love can recognize no barriers that man may place in the way of humanity.
1967-9 After a time of great laboring, a massive exercise in patience, forebearance, courage, and integrity, we approved the minute of concern, to become part of these minutes, recording that Richard Ernst was not in unity with us.

There followed a period of silent worship. The session was adjourned at 12:25 a.m. to reconvene at 8:30 a.m.

We reconvened at 8:30 a.m. August 17.

After a period of worship the Recording Clerk read the minutes of the session thus far.

Corrections to the change in the Pacific Yearly Meeting Holding Corporation By-Laws were made.

1967-10 We agreed that the Discipline Committee reconsider that portion of the Discipline concerned with our manner of coming to decisions, to express more clearly our philosophy and policy regarding unity.

1967-11 The Yearly Meeting, upon the recommendation of the Peace Committee, approved the following minutes:

(1) Friend in Washington: Pacific Yearly Meeting continues to support the Friend in Washington program and authorizes the Peace Committee to solicit pledges and contributions from Monthly Meetings and individual Friends. We are pleased to note that William Edgerton of Indiana University, a leading scholar in U.S.-U.S.S.R. relations, is to serve as Friend in Washington in 1968.

(2) Pacific Yearly Meeting looks with favor on the effort to state Friends' Peace Testimony in twentieth-century language, as drafted in "The Friends Peace Testimony -- A Challenge of Our Time." We encourage each Monthly Meeting to study the statement and consider specific programs appropriate for each community which will serve to implement its goals.

(3) Pacific Yearly Meeting encourages Monthly Meetings to support our own young men and others who need and wish to be supported in their stand as conscientious objectors or as non-cooperators. Such support can include sympathetic counselling, funds for legal aid to the limit of our ability, and ministering to those suffering in prison. Meetings are urged to inform themselves so that they will know who needs help and to make such needs known to all their members. In order that young people be aware of the choices under Selective Service, Monthly Meetings are encouraged to initiate and support efforts to present in the schools and colleges full information regarding provisions for conscientious objection. Special effort should be made to reach high school students before they are eighteen.
(4) Letter to President Johnson from Pacific Yearly Meeting:

"Pacific Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, meeting in Claremont, California, August 13-17, sends you our complete support for your continued opposition to the deployment of anti-ballistic missile system. As you have expressed it, 'The United States and the Soviet Union have reached a watershed in the disturbing history of our arms competition. Decisions may be made on both sides which will trigger another upward spiral."

"We hope you will continue to press for an agreement with the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics barring anti-ballistic systems for both sides, but even if such an agreement is not reached we are convinced our present policy is amply justified. As Secretary McNamara put it in an interview in the Saturday Evening Post, 'It's no argument that if they/the Soviet Union/are doing it, we should. They've been wrong many times in the past. Why should we rush on blindly and duplicate their errors?'

"Copies of this letter of support of you are being sent to the Senators of Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Hawaii, and Montana in which states Pacific Yearly Meeting Friends reside."

Sincerely yours,

Madge T. Seaver, Clerk

Social Order Committee:

1967-12 It was agreed that the message of the National Conference of Friends on Race Relations should be published in the Friends Bulletin and that we ask the Social Order Committee to take leadership in helping Friends and Meetings to become informed and involved.

Nominating Committee:

1967-13 Yearly Meeting approved Nominating Committee's recommendation that Walt Raitt be Chairman of the Nominating Committee.

1967-14 After announcing corrections to the Nominating Committee Report which was posted on August 16, Friends approved the nominations to become part of these minutes. (See Attachment #4)
1967-15 The Junior Yearly Meeting Epistle was read and accepted for its warm poetic expression. (See Attachment #7)

1967-16 The Young Friends Epistle was heartily accepted. (See Attachment #8)

Before the close of the meeting a Friend proposed that the Minute of Concern already approved by the Yearly Meeting be changed. The words in the third sentence, of the third paragraph: "men of conscience" should read "us."

1967-17 The meeting approved of this change. (See Attachment #10)

1967-18 The 1967 Epistle of Pacific Yearly Meeting to Friends Everywhere was read and approved by the Yearly Meeting. (See Attachment #9)

We closed our tenth session to meet at 11:00 a.m. for worship.

1967-19 The Clerk's closing minute follows:

We have now come to the close of our 21st annual session. We have valued our work and worship together. However, we have not been content to enjoy our fellowship, deaf to the cries of a suffering world. We have set ourselves to respond in however groping a way. In this process, we have learned that our care for the injured must be expressed with tender care for each other's feelings and positions. Otherwise our act of conscience may be corrupted at its very core. Oh God, we pray thee, cleanse the thoughts of our mind that we may worthily praise thee.

We now adjourn, expecting to reconvene in August, 1968 at St. Mary's College, Moraga, California.

Madge T. Seaver, Clerk

Richard Manners, Recording Clerk
Madge Seaver, our Clerk, opened the meeting at 8:10 p.m. on August 12, 1967.

1. Roll Call was taken by the Clerk. No representatives from the following Monthly Meetings answered the roll:

- Albuquerque
- Berkeley
- Calgary
- Fresno
- Grass Valley
- Multnomah
- Palo Alto
- Pima
- Redlands
- Tacoma
- Redlands
- Tacoma
- Vancouver
- Victoria

2A. Nominating Committee's recommendations were approved as follows:

- Baxter Hurn
- Harlow Mills
- David Bruner
- Richard Ernst

Friends World Committee-Delegate
Assistant Clerk
Reading Clerk
Member of PYM Holding Corporation

B. We agreed to the Nominating Committee's suggestion that they co-opt three new members to Nominating Committee: one from Arizona and New Mexico; one from Willamette; and one from the Pacific Northwest.

C. Upon the recommendation of Nominating Committee, we appointed the ad hoc committee to pick new members to the Nominating Committee and name the chairman for approval at the Executive Committee in March 1968. Those appointed were:

- Cleo Cox, convenor
- Asenath Young
- Mildred Burck

3A. Agenda

We were asked to review the proposed agenda and approved changes in the length of time of the Worship-Fellowship program, extending their time on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday so that they will end at 10:00 a.m. This change was made on the recommendation of the meeting of the Worship-Fellowship leaders who felt that an hour and a half was needed for the meetings. Consequently, the starting time of the General Sessions in the morning was set at 10:15 a.m. The leaders of the groups will exercise care that the spirit of worship achieved in the Worship-Fellowship groups will carry over into the General Sessions. The Clerk was asked to remind Friends of this hope at the 4:00 p.m. session on Sunday.
B. The Clerk advised us that Thomas Lung’aho had been obliged to return to Kenya. Therefore, his talk had been canceled. As a consequence, we agreed that we move the time set aside to hear Anna Brinton from Wednesday evening to Monday morning.

C. Upon being advised that the visitor from California Yearly Meeting who had been chosen to take part in the Report of Representatives to Friends World Committee would not be able to attend on Monday evening, we asked the Clerks, with Clifford Maser and Gretchen Tuthill, to re-arrange sessions so that we could have the benefit of the visitor’s being with us.

D. Nominating Committee Report: We agreed that the Nominating Committee report which is to be given on Thursday morning should be posted on Wednesday.

4. Bob Barns reported that the arrangements for the 1968 Yearly Meeting at St. Mary’s College could be either during the third or fourth week of August. We chose the third week and asked Arrangements Committee to set the exact dates.

5. Yearly Meeting Assessment: There being confusion as to the amount due to Yearly Meeting from Monthly Meetings, we approved the suggestion that the Statistical Secretary advise the Treasurer of the number of members of each Meeting. The Yearly Meeting Treasurer will then advise each Monthly Meeting treasurer and clerk of the amount due.

6. Bulletin: Alice Dart reported that Edward Thatcher had resigned as chairman of the Bulletin Committee. She asked that the Nominating Committee, in choosing the new chairman, find someone living in the same city as the editor.

7. Printed Copies of Minutes for Libraries: Scott Longenecker reported that investigations had been made into the cost of this project. The Meeting approved of printing library copies. A further report and recommendation will be made to the Executive Committee in March 1968.

8. Finance: Paton Crouse told us that the report on last year’s transactions compared to budget had been completed for presentation to the general session.

9. History Committee: The History Committee made the following recommendations:

(a) The Archives, which now have outgrown the space available at Berkeley, be removed to the University of the Pacific library under the care of the chairman of the History Committee.

(b) A permanent file case be purchased to house the records.

(c) The History Committee chairman also be designated as the Yearly Meeting Archivist.
(d) Monthly and Quarterly Meetings be invited to send their permanent records which they deem to have specific historical significance to the Archivist for the purpose of making copies for the Yearly Meeting Archives. The records would then be kept in the Archives with copies being returned if Meetings desire to make use of this service.

(e) With the death of Vern James, who was the first Clerk of Pacific Yearly Meeting, and since this is the twentieth anniversary of the Yearly Meeting, a period of time on the Yearly Meeting agenda, preferably following the Memorials, be devoted to a review of the first twenty years of the Yearly Meeting.

The recommendations were approved.

10. Epistle Committee Nominations: Catherine Bruner from Ministry and Oversight recommended names for the Epistle Committee:

   Marguerite Wells, chairman
   Judy Bruff
   Tippy Schwabe

   These recommendations were approved.

Our next meeting being announced for 8:30 a.m. Sunday, we closed with a period of silence.
Representative Committee

SESSION 2

Harlow Mills, Assistant Clerk, opened the meeting at 8:30 a.m. Sunday, August 13, 1967.

1. Minutes of the first meeting of Representative Committee were read and approved.

2. The roll of Meetings which did not respond at the first Representative Committee Meeting was read and answered by:
   - Albuquerque
   - Grass Valley
   - Redlands
   - Berkeley
   - Multnomah
   - Vancouver

3. Kristina Bradwell went over the prospectus for adoption and the guidance of future secretariats. She emphasized the need for:
   - A co-ordinator
   - Four typists
   - Two mimeographers
   - A room on the ground floor, with 24-hour access
   - A telephone

Her complete prospectus was approved for adoption.
4. We agreed that each Quarterly Meeting should prepare a directory, using the format of Southern California Quarterly Meeting's directory, and that Yearly Meeting would prepare its directory from these.

5. The travel minute for Ferner and Georgeanna Nuhn was returned with endorsements by the Omaha-Council Bluffs, Central City, Lincoln, Nebraska Monthly Meetings and the Friends General Conference at Columbia, Missouri. This was accepted.

6. Education Committee: Gerri House reported for the Education Committee by putting before the meeting a minute, coming from the San Francisco Monthly Meeting through the College Park Quarterly Religious Education Committee, that Yearly Meeting Education Committee form a sub-committee to study the proposal of hiring a Religious Educator. The subcommittee would be made up of three people, and the Education Committee's budget increased to $550.00. The increased funds would be needed for travel in the Yearly Meeting to discuss the idea with the Monthly Meetings and to try to arrange a conference for religious education committee members of monthly, quarterly, and yearly meetings. It is hoped to have Douglas Steere at this conference, which would then be set for March 1968.

Representative Committee approved the establishment of the subcommittee and the increase in the budget. However, we moved in the direction of allowing flexibility in the scope of responsibility for the position. No definite limits were set. It is expected that the subcommittee will be able to determine the needs and practical issues after they have completed their study.

7. Ed Morgenroth announced that a lecture by Douglas Steere at Whittier College on March 4, 1968 has been arranged by the Ten Plus Ten Committee. The cost, between $1200 and $1500, is to be shared by California Yearly Meeting, Whittier College, and Pacific Yearly Meeting. PYM's participation will not be a budget expense but will depend on personal contributions. We endorsed the program and authorized our Treasurer to receive funds for meeting our share of the expense.

8. Asia/Australasia Association of Friends: Gretchen Tuthill read a letter from Richard Meredith, Clerk of Australia Yearly Meeting, in which he told of plans to establish an Association of Friends Meetings in Asia and Australasia. They hoped that Honolulu Meeting might be included. They invited our correspondence from time to time. We asked that a reply be forwarded to Richard Meredith, endorsed by our Clerk, stating that we gave our blessing and encouragement to the Association and that we hoped we would be able to maintain close ties with them through the Honolulu Meeting.

9. Friend in the Orient Committee: Floyd Schmoe reported a concern from University Meeting that Pacific Yearly Meeting collect funds to send a doctor to Vietnam, who would serve with the American Friends Service Committee or some other organization. The Friend in the Orient Committee was authorized to raise funds for the program and was asked to be our instrument in working out the details, recognizing the leadership of University Monthly Meeting.
10. Ministry and Oversight: Catherine Bruner reported that a Guide to Quaker Weddings has been prepared by Ministry and Oversight Committee. One copy should go to each Monthly Meeting.

11. Peace Committee: Stuart Innerst told us that a paper on civil disobedience was being drawn up for Friends to examine in preparation for the Tuesday morning plenary session.

12. Schools Committee: Helen Stevenson presented some findings of the Schools Committee. In summary, she said: "Friends' schools are laboratories for trying to implement Friends' philosophy, faith, and practice. Yearly Meeting can help to keep the vision of what these are in a rapidly changing world."

13. Social Order: John Ullman, reporting for the Social Order Committee, asked that the Nominating Committee be requested to consult with the Quarterly Meetings for nominations to the Social Order Committee and that the committee be limited to eight members. We approved this request.

John Ullman also asked that the Bulletin publish a special mid-year issue of material to be prepared by the Social Order Committee. The Editor agreed to this.

14. Children's Program: Ruth Dart Smith summarized and interpreted her prospectus for a three-year children's program at Yearly Meeting. This was accepted with gratitude and appreciation. She also urged that we have the same kind of co-ordinator for the junior high and high school programs. Representative Committee asked the Schools Committee to pursue her suggestion and approved a $200 increase in the budget for this purpose. They are asked to make a recommendation to the Executive Committee in March 1968.

15. Permanent Site: Bob Barns, reporting for the Permanent Site Committee, told us that there exists the possibility that long-term contractual arrangements could be made at a site at Squaw Valley, near Lake Tahoe, about one hour's drive from Reno, Nevada. The site has ample dormitories, dining and meeting rooms, with camping available within reasonable distance. We approved using this site in 1970 and will explore long-term contracts after both the managers and we are satisfied with the appropriateness of such a move, following our use of the facilities in 1970.

16. Participation in a Voyage of the Phoenix: Bob Barns recommended that Yearly Meeting consider putting some of its reserve funds in an escrow account as insurance in case of loss or damage to the Phoenix. This is a project of a Quaker Action Group, who are raising funds in the amount of $13,000 for crew and medical supplies for the next trip of the Phoenix to Vietnam. We asked the Peace Committee, in consultation with the Finance Committee, to consider this request.

The meeting closed with a few moments of worship.
Harlow Mills, Assistant Clerk, opened the meeting at 3:15 p.m. Wednesday, August 16, 1967.

1. Minute 9 from the Representative Committee Meeting (2) was sent back by Yearly Meeting for further discussion and clarification. The original minute read:

Floyd Schmoe reported a concern from University Meeting to Pacific Yearly Meeting that Pacific Yearly Meeting should collect funds to send a doctor to Vietnam, who would serve with the American Friends Service Committee or some other organization. Friend in the Orient Committee was authorized to raise funds for the program and was asked to be our instrument in carrying out the details, recognizing the leadership of University Monthly Meeting.

After discussion, Representative Committee reaffirmed its recommendation of this minute to Yearly Meeting with the following changes:

Instead of "doctor" read "person or persons open to the Inner Light who could communicate back to Pacific Yearly Meeting. It was felt that a doctor would fill the most urgent need."

2. Yearly Meeting Locations: The strong preference of the Representatives Committee was for St. Mary's College rather than Squaw Valley for the 1970 Yearly Meeting. After Bob Barns reported that St. Mary's was definite for 1968 (Monday, August 19 through Friday, August 23) and that there was very good prospect of our being able to return there biennially, the following minute was approved:

Future Yearly Meetings should alternate between Northern California and Oregon, with Southern California Friends carrying their share of Yearly Meeting responsibilities.

3. Phoenix: Representative Committee approved taking $2,000.00 from reserve funds to be put in escrow for Pacific Yearly Meeting's share of the $10,000.00 insurance fund being raised for the Phoenix to cover possible losses not ordinarily insurable. This $2,000.00 from Phoenix is to be matched by equal amounts from two other Yearly Meetings. The interest of the funds in escrow is to go to Earle Reynolds. The feasibility of getting insurance to cover normal risks to the Phoenix is to be investigated.

4. Schools Committee: Helen Stevenson presented a report from the Schools Committee outlining a procedure for a long-term program for Junior Yearly Meeting. Representative Committee asked the Schools Committee to find a suitable person to serve for a three-year term as co-ordinator of the Junior Yearly Meeting. This person is to begin serving as soon as found and is to report to the Executive Committee in March.

5. Agenda Committee: Representative Committee approved the appointment by the Executive Committee in March, 1968, of an Agenda Committee of three people to advise the clerk in the preparation of Yearly Meeting agenda.

6. Reports were given on the following aspects of the current Yearly Meeting: Arrangements, Worship-Fellowship groups, Junior Yearly Meeting, Children's Program.
7. Out of the general discussion of this session of Yearly Meeting came the following minutes of exercise:

a) One entire plenary session should be put aside for the Peace Committee and one for the Social Order Committee.

b) We should be more flexible concerning the mimeographing of documents. There may be some occasions when a document should be mimeographed and in the hands of attenders before discussion in plenary session.

c) The time may be approaching when the increasing number of memorials at Yearly Meeting shall make it wise to limit the memorials to those who have been participants in Yearly Meeting activities.

PACIFIC YEARLY MEETING
1967
Claremont Men's College, Claremont, California
August 13-17, 1967

Though sheltered from the pangs of world
Conflict, we are thrown into the fire of self-exploration.
A bird rises from ashes and defies the Seventh Fleet, Filling our minds with wonder. Two who accepted their Fates, died, and were reborn, drive our thoughts inward.
Could I? Would I? Who am I? Yet throughout
The pains of self-analysis, we dread the parting
Which will drag us out of ourselves.

Flashing colors
Falling stars
To be remembered
Then quickly forgotten as they fade into deep blue eternity.

Each is each, All is All.

TO FRIENDS EVERYWHERE:

As we met together in Claremont our concern for the present world situation and our awareness of the urgent need for action gathered our discussion. At times we were frustrated -- how much can we do? In voicing our concern to the whole Meeting, we felt comfort in the unity of the Yearly Meeting. We saw the results of a small group that acted on conscience -- the Voyage of the Phoenix. We saw the power of larger groups that face similar concerns. How do we act upon concerns for both individual and national suffering?

How do we preserve that of value in other cultures, yet somehow help them progress? From our discussion came a minute to aid the people of Viet Nam. A hat was passed; over a hundred and fifty dollars was collected. Contributed jointly with funds of the Yearly Meeting, this money will be sent to the Canadian Friends Service Committee for medical supplies to Viet Nam. We felt it important for Friends to support, both financially and spiritually, those who suffer for their acts of conscience.

We have explored ideas, found support through personal contact, and renewed our faith. On Behalf of Pacific Yearly Meeting Young Friends

Helen Dart, Clerk
Epistle from the Twenty First Session
Pacific Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends
Claremont Men's College
Claremont, California
August 13-17, 1967

TO FRIENDS AROUND THE WORLD:

As we gather at Yearly Meeting we are joyful, glad for each other's presence, grateful for what we share. We conduct business, worship together, and listen to Friends tell of the important occasions of the year.

So it was this year at Claremont Men's College, Southern California, as we celebrated the fifty years of American Friends Service Committee, the thirtieth year of the Friends World Committee for Consultation, the Fourth World Conference of Friends, and our own first twenty years.

But there comes a time when a spirit wells up unexpectedly in the meeting, a spirit which cannot be contained by the agenda. It isn't the joyful, happy feeling we've known before. It is uncomfortable, difficult and unsettling.

And so this Yearly Meeting has been different from any other we have experienced in the years leading up to its coming of age. We were faced with the necessity of answering the question asked by our children, "Are you going to practice what you have been teaching us?" The Young Friends Yearly Meeting brought us a minute recommending that the Yearly Meeting establish a bank account for sending money to the Canadian Friends Service Committee for medical aid to all of Vietnam. We wrestled with the implications of our obligations to our God and His voice in us; our obligations to our suffering brothers, especially when we are involved in causing the suffering; our obligations to a system of law which we honor, and for which we are responsible. We spoke with honesty. We spoke with love. We spoke with religious fervor. When we united in approving the minute we felt that we had grown into a new era of our relationship with each other and with God.

On behalf of Pacific Yearly Meeting,

Madge T. Seaver, Clerk
PACIFIC YEARLY MEETING PEACE COMMITTEE AND YOUNG FRIENDS

A Minute of Concern:

Medical Aid for Vietnam

Believing that there is "that of God" in every man, Friends have for 300 years denied "all outward wars and strife, and fightings with outward weapons, for any end, or under any pretense whatsoever,..." Friends have also been led to minister to the victims of war, disregarding all distinctions between "friend" and "foe" as contradictory to the basic humanity of all men.

We of Pacific Yearly Meeting feel committed to a stand of total opposition to the war our country is waging in Vietnam. The war is a close and immediate thing in our lives, for it is from among us that the physical material upon which the war depends is drawn. It is with a feeling of impatience that we have sought ways to end the war. We feel now that the situation is so critical that strong, positive action must be taken.

We are a small group, unable alone to make immediate changes in the political conditions that allow the war to continue in our name. We are able to challenge a law that would prohibit us from helping our brothers, those who suffer from the destruction we pour down upon them. The restrictions that have been placed on medical aid sent to war victims in "enemy" controlled areas of Vietnam are absolutely intolerable to men of conscience. They must not be silently accepted.

We, as Friends, are compelled publicly to undertake specific actions to witness to the injustice of laws which would prohibit the giving of humanitarian relief to particular human beings.

We therefore recommend that Pacific Yearly Meeting establish a special or earmarked account, under the Yearly Meeting, the purpose of which shall be to transmit funds through the Canadian Friends Service Committee for medical aid to all parts of Vietnam. We take grateful note of the initial contribution of $158,00 of from the Young Friends and encourage attenders at Pacific Yearly Meeting to add their contributions. We further recommend that Pacific Yearly Meeting inform each member family of this action, encouraging them to make checks payable to the new account.

It is suggested that funds so collected be regularly transmitted to the Canadian Friends Service Committee with due notification to the press and appropriate U.S. Government officials. Two of our members, Irwin Hogenauer and Floyd Schmoe, have volunteered to assist in this regard.

We urge the establishment of this account to express our concern that our help should go to victims of the war, regardless of the political units within which they may find themselves, for love can recognize no barriers that man may place in the way of humanity.
